ProX XC-USB-XLR25 25 Ft XLR-F to USB High Performance Audio Cable

Description

The ProX XC-USB-XLR25 XLR to USB adapter makes it easy to get connected. This special USB cable has an XLR plug on one end, allowing you to connect an XLR microphone directly to your computer. It works with a typical dynamic stage mic, or a condenser mic that has an onboard battery as phantom power is not available. This cable is passive, and relies on your computer's native USB audio support for operation. The ProX XC-USB-XLR25 USB Cables are designed to transmit all your audio signal safely and accurately. At its core, our 20 AWG Oxygen-Free Copper (OFC) conductors carries your signal with precision, while the high-density spiral shielding eliminates any interference and unwanted noise.

ProX Cables provides professionals with amazing cables. We know that cables are not just cables, they are what protects your sound from being altered. Uncompromised signal power, frequency handling, and sound reproduction is what we are passionate about. Plus a Limited Lifetime Warranty!

Features
